SPAM E-MAIL AND POSTINGS

In the event of your or others' access to or use of the Site or Service, Services or Materials in connection with the transmission of spam newsgroup postings or unsolicited e-mail in violation of these Terms of Use, you acknowledge and agree that GignoMind would be irreparably harmed hereunder and that monetary damages would be an insufficient and ineffective remedy; therefore you agree that GignoMind is entitled to obtain immediate injunctive relief against any such transmission (in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity). GignoMind may without restriction block, filter or delete unsolicited e-mail.

GignoMind is committed to being a trusted member of the Internet community. As such, we have adopted a firm anti-spam policy. Spam can deluge a recipient's email box and waste the recipient's time and money. Spam often causes recipients to complain to their Internet Service Providers who in turn may block or restrict access from legitimate services like GignoMind, and Users, like you.

To help recipients be free from spam, and to maximize the availability of our Services to our community of Users, we have taken a "zero tolerance" stand against spam. You acknowledge, warrant and agree that:

- You will not engage in any spamming activities in your use of the Services.
- You understand that GignoMind is serving as "host" and is not the sender or originator of any survey, and that you are therefore solely responsible for your email/SMS-ing activities using the Services.
- You warrant that you either have an ongoing business or personal relationship with or have obtained consents to send email/SMS messages inviting participation in a survey to the persons on your own email/mobile phone list and on any lists you have acquired from a third party.
- Your use of the Site and Services will not violate any U.S. or foreign spamming, junk mail or other related laws or regulations prohibiting or discouraging unsolicited mail.
- If you engage in any unlawful spamming activity, GignoMind will report such conduct to the appropriate authorities and turn over any and all information, including personally identifiable information, to appropriate law enforcement persons or entities.
- We may request at any time that you provide proof that your email/SMS recipients have agreed to receive email/SMS messages from you. We may require that you provide the name of a list vendor and documentation of specific opt-in processes you or the vendor have used.

We will terminate the account of any User determined to have used the Services in connection with any spam email/SMS or otherwise breached these Terms of Use. Please be advised that we may also terminate your account if your mailings result in high bounce rates, a report or complaint of spam against the sender, poor monitoring of recipient consents including lax address book and email/mobile phone list management, or lack of compliance with anti-spam guidelines. We reserve the right to terminate your account(s) and your use of the Services, without notice, if we believe your activities are not in compliance with this Anti-Spam policy. We thank you for your compliance with our Anti-Spam policy and your commitment to good email/SMS-ing practices.
